BOARD ORDERS ELIMINATION OF NUISANCE

The board of health, at its regular June meeting Wednesday night in the office of the president, Dr. Harrison F. Harbach, South Washington street, discussed complaints of two alleged nuisances in the borough, dismissed one as not being a health matter, and directed the health officer, Eugene S. Sickles, to investigate and take action to remove the other.

The May cleanup campaign was reviewed and plans discussed for making it a bigger campaign next year. The board directed that letters be sent to Richard Krick, art director in the public schools, and Rev. Fr. Joseph Bradley, former assistant pastor of St. Francis Xavier church, thanking them for their cooperation in the public and parochial schools in the poster contest conducted for school children.

Plan New Program
President Harbach pointed out that the campaign to eliminate the use of illegal containers for garbage, announced in The Gettysburg Times Wednesday by Health Officer Sickles, marked the completion of the program adopted by the board last winter. A new program will be discussed at the July and August meetings. Efforts will also be directed during the remainder of the summer to continue enforcement of projects already completed or under way.

All members of the board were present, including Dr. Harbach, Mrs. Elizabeth Pennington, George E. Burgner, Eugene R. Hartman and Stover A. Small.

BUSES BRING MANY VISITORS

A large number of buses continue to bring visitors to Gettysburg. On Wednesday, three buses stopped at the Hotel Gettysburg.

Thirty-three high school students from Findley, Ohio, were overnight guests Tuesday night and for breakfast Wednesday morning.

A Delaware Valley Transportation company bus brought 17 persons from Stroudsburg for luncheon Wednesday, and 37 members of the Portland, Ohio, high school were at the hotel Wednesday for dinner.

Graduations and class reunions brought a heavy influx of visitors to Gettysburg over the week-end. At the Hotel Gettysburg, nearly 1,000 meals were served on Monday, and other hotels, restaurants, rooming houses and tourist courts did "big" business.

Bonneauville Fire Siren Is Delayed

It was reported at the monthly meeting of the Bonneauville Fire company Tuesday evening in the fire hall, that the new fire alarm system is being delayed, due to the installation of new telephone lines in the community.

John I. Weaver was employed as caretaker for the plot of ground surrounding the dam owned by the fire company, which is used in case of fire. The firemen reversed their policy of employing a janitor for the fire hall only during the winter months by rehiring their janitor whom they had previously released for the summer months. Routine business was transacted.

Leroy Shanbrook, president, presided at the meeting which was attended by about 25 firemen. Joseph Claiborne presented the secretary's report. Because of the Fourth of July holiday, the next meeting will be held on July 11 at 8:30 p.m., at which time picnic plans will be completed.

Annual Services At Chestnut Hill

The annual Chestnut Hill preaching service will be held Sunday, June 18, at 2 p.m., at which time the sermon will be delivered by the Rev. Mr. Spangler. Another guest minister will talk on "Father's Day." The public is invited to attend.

FORREST PARK CONTEST

The 12th annual massed band concert will be held Sunday at Forrest park, Hanover, with afternoon and evening concerts under direction of Prof. Charles W. Leader. The ballroom will open Saturday evening with music furnished by the Rhythmaires of Harrisburg.

ON FISHING TRIP

A fishing group including Clark Peters, Harry Gulden, James Miller, Joseph Boyer and the Messrs. Bowers and Kime, all of the upper end of the county, caught 346 fish Monday off Lewes, Del.

Lost Lumber Is Held For Owner

The owner or driver of a green International truck which spilled part of its load of lumber at "Pro-town," near Littlestown, Tuesday, can have the lumber by getting in contact with Chief of Police Leon H. Gage, Littlestown, Chief of Police Robert C. Harpster said today. Harpster said he received the message Wednesday night from Chief Gage.

The truck, destination unknown, might have been bringing the lumber to Gettysburg or some other Adams county community, Harpster said. Several 2 by 8 foot timbers, between 12 and 14 feet in length fell off. They are now piled at the side of the highway.

29 COUNTIANS TO TAKE PART IN FFA EVENTS

Arrangements for attendance by FFA members and teachers at the annual Future Farmers of America week activities at Pennsylvania State college June 14, 15 and 16 were outlined Wednesday evening at a meeting of vocational agriculture advisors and veterans agriculture teachers at St. Thomas.

The "ag" teachers from Adams and Franklin counties selected the names of 49 youngsters who will represent the two-county area at the Penn State affair.

There the FFA representatives will take part in judging dairy cattle, livestock, poultry, farm mechanics, agronomy, plant diseases and tractor driving. They will be present for educational demonstrations of livestock, poultry, farm mechanics, dairy, forestry, agronomy and horticulture.

Countians To Attend

Among the Adams county youngsters who will attend the "week" are James Bly, Joseph Harmon, Richard Hess, David Mentzer and Robert Pyle, of Biglerville; Laverne Kraft, William Heagerty, Luther Arendt and Raymond Miller, of East Berlin; William Durbosar, Ross Crouse, Jay Crouse, Carl Keller, Victor Re, Donald Dillon, Wilbur Danner, Kenneth Williams and Roy Weaver, Jr., of Gettysburg, and Dean Nance, Harmon Mihlimes and Glen Herr of New Oxford. In addition two more East Berlin students were being selected to attend the sessions.

County agriculture teachers planning to attend include Herbert L. Heberlein, East Berlin; Elmer H. Schriver and George W. Glenn, both of Gettysburg; John Kratzert, New Oxford, and Richard C. Lightner, county supervisor of agriculture education.

Lighter presided at the meeting held at St. Thomas Wednesday evening, and the agriculture teachers played a softball game with a number of members of the FFA to pick a team to represent the two-county area at the FFA week program.

It was decided to hold the next "ag" teachers meeting July 5 at Caledonia in the form of a family picnic.

VFW Auxiliary Buys Savings Bond

The auxiliary of Post No. 15 of the Veterans of Foreign Wars voted, at a meeting held Wednesday night in the post home, Carlisle street, to purchase a U. S. savings bond, start another merchandise club and hold a public card party July 10 at the post home. The president, Mrs. Mary Fridinger, presided.

Miss Oma Purney was named secretary of the merchandise club, and the following were named captains: Mrs. Virginia Lauer, Miss Ruth Miller, Mrs. Mary Fridinger and Miss Beulah Purney.

Mrs. Rosetta Johnson resigned as a delegate to the district meetings and Miss Oma Purney was elected in her place. District No. 21 will hold its next meeting at Hanover July 9. The post, it was announced, will help pay the cost of a bus if enough auxiliary members desire transportation.

The committee for the card party included Miss Beulah Purney, chairman; Mrs. Katherine Smith and Miss Ruth Miller.

MEETING THIS EVENING

A meeting for automobile refinishers, bodymen and fleet operators will be held this evening at Cross Keys hotel by the Gettysburg Auto-parts company. Guests are expected from York, Adams, Franklin and Cumberland counties of Pennsylvania, and Carroll and Cumberland counties in Maryland. The film, "From Start To Finish," will be presented for the first time in this section. There will be door prizes and refreshments.

YOUNGSTER INJURED

James Yingling, 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Yingling, 33 North Stratton street, was treated at the Warner hospital for a small laceration of the left upper eyelid received while playing.

FRANKLIN TWP. PATRONS VOTE ON JOINTURES

Franklin township tax payers have received cards from the township school board asking them to vote on what the township should do in regard to entering into a school jointure.

The cards, sent to all taxpayers list four choices and ask the patrons to mark their choice and return the ballot by Friday so that the board will have an opportunity to determine the wishes of the majority of the people in the township.

The Friday deadline was made necessary if the township board is to meet a deadline set by the Gettysburg joint school system. The Gettysburg system at its May meeting accepted the Franklin township school system into its jointure, and made the effective date June 12, Monday evening. That placed the township in the position where it either had to accept or reject jointure with Gettysburg by that date. The Gettysburg board set the date in order that it would know whether to take into account the Franklin township students in its forthcoming building program which it hopes to get underway this year.

The questions presented to the Franklin township voters on the ballot are: "Do you prefer a jointure with Gettysburg school district jointure from grades 7 to 12? Do you prefer a jointure with Upper Adams School District jointure from grades 1 to 12? Do you prefer a jointure in both Upper Adams grades 1 to 12 and Gettysburg grades 7 to 12? Do you prefer to not join any school jointure?"

A difference in the joining with Gettysburg and Upper Adams joint systems is indicated and was made necessary as a result of action of the two joint boards. Gettysburg had agreed to a 7 to 12 grades jointure while the Upper Adams board told the Franklin board at a recent meeting that it would consider a jointure only on a 1 through 12 grades basis.

Here And There News Collected At Random

Alden L. Doud, editor of The Paper Book, official monthly publication of Delta Theta Phi law fraternity, publishes an interesting review of Leighton C. Taylor's recent book, "As I See It From Rampike Hill," in the May edition.

Accompanying the review are a half-page photograph of Mr. Taylor, and a reproduction of the cover of the book.

Mr. Doud writes as follows:

"As I See It" is a compilation of comment by the author from contributions to the Gettysburg Times. Unlike the usual, the series mingle seasoned comment with human interest anecdotes from historic times. They tie in the present with the past and one acquainted with the unique position of the author with national affairs, and his personality, will greatly enjoy every subject, even to the point of forgetting that the modern critic would likely shout, "old guard" or "he's behind the times."

The story of General Muhlenberg during Revolutionary days when, upon finishing his sermon, he threw aside his clerical garb to disclose the uniform of a Continental colonel and exclaimed, "... there is also a time to fight, and this time has come," is typical.

Then, too, there is the provocative article "Just How Big Is Too Big," in which is discussed the theory of whether bigness is a sin or synonymous with monopoly.

Announce Opening Of Little's Food Market

The grand opening of Little's food market, 200 Steinwehr avenue, takes place Saturday according to a display advertisement appearing elsewhere in this edition.

Twelve baskets of food will be given away free during the opening sale.

The store features frozen foods, fresh and smoked meats, ice cream and a general assortment of groceries. The management announces free delivery in Gettysburg. Paul Little is the proprietor.

PLAN PROMENADE

The regular Jupe promenade of Voiture Locale No. 731, Forty and Eight, will be held at the chateau in the mountains Friday night, beginning at 8 o'clock, according to notices sent to members today by Eugene S. Sickles, correspondent.

U.S. Sends Arms Abroad To Use In Event Of Soviet Aggression

Washington, June 8 (AP) — The United States reportedly is shipping some of its best anti-tank weapons to those European allies which might be in the path of massive Soviet armored forces in a future war.

Defense officials said the weapons—brought mostly for France under the Arms Aid program—include bazookas, rocket launchers, and powerful recoilless rifles which are still in the secret stage.

At the same time, the U. S. Army is pressing a long-range program aimed at countering the threat of Russia's potent armored forces by the "development and limited production of a family of tanks superior to those of any possible future enemy."

Officials told a reporter yesterday that U. S. medium tanks—including some modernized World War II types—are among the weapons being sent to Europe under the arms program. The Senate Armed Forces and

HONEST WOMAN VISITS TOWN

Gettysburg today entertained a Rochester, N. Y., woman, who on Wednesday found jewelry valued at $21,000 on the Boardwalk at Atlantic City, and received a $500 ring from the owner of the jewelry for returning it.

The woman was Mrs. Harold W. Nichols. She and her husband, an official of the Rochester General Electric corporation, registered at the Hotel Gettysburg Wednesday night. This morning they made a tour of the battlefield.

The $21,000 worth of jewelry lay on the Boardwalk for half an hour Wednesday ignored or unnoticed by hundreds of other persons who walked by. The tissue-wrapped package of three platinum and diamond bracelets, which had fallen from the pocket of a jewelry store employee, Archie Wilkinson, was finally picked up by Mrs. Nichols. She turned the jewels over to police. Wilkinson said the bracelets had slipped through a hole in his coat pocket. His employer, Nat H. Yarnon, gave the ring to Mrs. Nichols.

BULLETINS

Washington, June 8 (AP)—A three-year extension of the peacetime draft act was recommended to the Senate today by its armed services committee. The present draft act is due to expire June 24.

The Senate bill would continue the President's power to order actual inductions of youths between 18 and 26 years if he found that necessary.

Washington, June 8 (AP)—A Congressional source said today that a secret federal grand jury is looking into the 1945 Amerasia case in New York.

The source, who asked not to be named, said the grand jury has called many of the witnesses who have appeared before a Senate committee which is looking into the secret documents case. The Senate group is centering its attention on the question of who delayed arrests in the affair.

New York, June 8 (AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower said today that huge military expenditures are necessary but "if unwatched, may dangerously bleed the economy and even destroy what we seek to protect."

Eisenhower made the statement in a speech prepared for the 196th commencement exercises of Columbia university, which he heads. He told the Columbia graduates that "stupendous military expenditures" though "essential for the country's safety," are one of the major problems to be faced in the future.

EXCEPTIONS TO SHOE FACTORY OPINION FILED

Sol Lance and Irving Pearlstein, two of the defendants in the equity action brought by H. Jacob and Sons, Inc., of New York city in connection with the sale of the Cannon Shoe company at McSherrytown, today filed exceptions to the opinion handed down May 27 by the Adams county court.

In the opinion the court held the two New York men and William Re, of Hanover, who was associated with them in the purchase of the McSherrytown plant, were actually acting as agents for H. Jacob and Sons and should turn over the plant to the New York company which operates the Jackson shoe plant in Hanover.

Head Of Hanover Plant
Pearlstein and Lantz became in effect agents when they associated with Re, who was a vice president of the Jacob company, as well as the $30,000 a year superintendent of the Hanover plant, the court held.

Testimony given at the hearing in the case, the court held, had indicated that Re held a fiduciary or trust position with the company, that he knew of and was associated with Harold O. Tour, New York city, president, in negotiations to buy the McSherrytown plant for the New York concern and that he, while thus engaged in negotiations with Tour, entered into an agreement with Pearlstein and Lantz and Jean Annette Hollinger, daughter of Mrs. George Gitt Hollinger, Abbotstown.

CAMP NAWAKWA ALUMNI MEET OVER WEEK-END

The Alumni Association of Camp Nawakwa will sponsor the annual "Nawakwa Week-End" Friday, Saturday and Sunday at the camp site, near Bryansville.

Activities will begin with registration Friday afternoon and close with the dedication of the new facility building, the LaVene Grove Lodge, at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

Theme for the week-end will be "Living as a Christian Through Your Vocation." Speakers will include Rev. Reginald Dietz, Columbia, newly elected director of the camp; Chaplain Marshall E. Brennenman, Quantico Marine Air Base; Rev. John D. Forster, Stoyestown, associate director of boys' camps; Sister Margaret Fry, Philadelphia Motherhouse, recently returned from a trip to India, and Miss Viola Dietrich, Palmyra, a member of the camp faculty. In addition, there will be a discussion of the theme by a panel made up of an engineer, a nurse, a high school coach, a farmer, a salesman and a clerk.

Recreation Program
In charge of the devotional services for the evening holidays will be the Bidiban and Wakawa graduating classes of the 1949 senior high girls' and senior high boys' camps.

Recreational activities will be directed by Miss Marguerite Mickey, Cashtown, and Dick Glingher, Lebanon. Included in the recreation program will be swimming and games in the afternoon and social affairs in the evening.

The committee on arrangements was under the co-chairmanship of Miss Mary Laird and Miss Oletha Dietrich, Philadelphia. Rev. John D. Forster headed the committee for the dedication of the LaVene Grove Lodge.

Rites Friday For Thomas B. Sniffen

Funeral services for Thomas Byrne Sniffen, two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Sniffen, Gettysburg R. 3, who died suddenly Wednesday morning from acute dilatation of the heart while playing in the living room of his home, will be held Friday at 2 p.m. from the Bender funeral home conducted by the Rev. YOUTH JAILED AFTER CRASHES; FACES 2 MORE SERIOUS COUNTS

The driver of a convertible coupe which rocketed around the streets of Gettysburg early this morning with its tires squealing in protest against sharp turns and reckless operation, literally "had the book thrown at him" by borough police today.

Warren Davis, 22, of Gettysburg R. 3, was in the Adams county jail to serve a sentence of 16 days in default of a fine of $25 and costs on a reckless driving charge, following a hearing before Justice of the Peace John H. Busehore.

But that was the lesser part of Davis' troubles. He was held for court on two more serious charges, leaving the scene of an accident and driving an automobile while under the influence of intoxicants. Bail on these two charges, of $500 each, was not furnished this morning.

Two Companions Fined
Two companions, riding with Davis, pleaded guilty this morning before Squire Busehore to disorderly conduct charges and paid fines of $10 and costs each. They were listed as Harold Franklin, North Washington street, and Richard Arendt, Gettysburg R. 1.

The car which Davis admitted driving struck a pole in front of the home of Dr. Philip T. Beamer, 114 Buford avenue, breaking it off near the base, and damaged a traffic sign. The pole was supported by a telephone cable, and did not fall, police said. The car then continued east on Buford avenue and Chambersburg street to a point opposite the C. W. Epley garage, Chambersburg and South Washington streets, when Davis made a "U" turn, and in doing so, struck and bent a parking meter post.

Police Trail Car

Davis, police said, then drove west on Chambersburg street to Franklin street, north on Franklin to Race Horse alley, and east in the alley to a point opposite the plant of the Gettysburg Ice and Storage company.

Borough police received a call that an automobile had struck the pole on Buford avenue. Driving to the scene, Officers Ralph Fissel and Raymond E. Menges saw wet marks on the street in front of the Epley garage. They followed the water and oil slick to Race Horse alley, where they found Davis, Arendt and Franklin standing by the badly damaged automobile.

Two Are Injured

Police said Franklin and Arendt suffered severe cuts on their faces, and were taken first to the Warner hospital for treatment before being taken to jail.

Police said Davis admitted striking the pole and the parking meter post. He escaped injury, but damage to his automobile was estimated at $300. The car is registered in his name and the name of his sister, Ethel Davis, police said.

Davis was "very much under the influence," the report said. Police also said they found several bottles of beer in the car and some empty beer bottles, some broken.

CORPUS CHRISTI FEAST MARKED

The feast of Corpus Christi (the body of Christ) was being observed at St. Francis Xavier Catholic church here today with a number of services, the Rev. Fr. Anthony Kane, rector, said.

Following the 8 o'clock mass at the church here, the Blessed Sacrament, the body and blood of Christ under the appearance of bread, was exposed on the altar to remain throughout the day in observance of the feast.

Throughout the day the altar boys and school children of the local parochial school are visiting the church for periods of adoration at which special prayers are being said by each group.

This evening the observance will end with a Holy Hour at 7 o'clock. The Holy Hour service will open with singing of the hymn, "Heart of Jesus, Heart of God," and will include recitation of the rosary, litany of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, a sermon by the Rev. Fr. Henry Kodzowski, a hymn, "Sacred Heart of Jesus, Font of Love and Mercy," consecration to the Sacred Heart and singing of "Tantum Ergo," "Laudate Dominum" and "Holy God, We Praise Thy Name."

The feast of Corpus Christi is held on a Thursday, because the Last Supper was held on that day, Father Kane explained. The feast began in 1246 when it was proclaimed by the Bishop of Liege and Pope Urban II in 1264 extended the feast to the entire church.

ANTHONY EDEN DIVORCED FROM PRETTY WIFE

London, June 8 (AP)—Former Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden won a divorce decree today by testifying that his attractive brunette wife deserted him in 1947 to live in America.

Eden, whose political ambitions as deputy conservative leader may be jeopardized by divorce in strait-laced Britain, was granted a decree nisi in a five-minute hearing before Justice Francis Hodson.

The dapper, greying Eden—still handsome at 53—told the court in a firm voice that his wife insisted on visiting the United States in 1946, that she accompanied her there and that she then refused to return and to her native Britain.

Mrs. Eden, who has spent most of her time since 1946 in the U. S. and Bermuda, was not represented at the hearing. She did not contest the action.

At her New York apartment Mrs. Eden said: "There really is nothing to say. I've spent a terrible morning already."

Final In 6 Weeks
A decree nisi becomes absolute in six weeks under British divorce law, unless there is an objection raised in court.

Eden, who wore a dark blue suit, was the only witness at the hearing. Letters from Mrs. Eden were produced in court, but not read. The former foreign secretary refused to comment as he strode quickly from the courtroom after the verdict was announced.

Gossip over the Edens' domestic split has been common in London for many months. But friends of the deputy conservative leader speculated that he would avoid divorce because of the probable effect on his political career. As the recognized deputy to Winston Churchill, Eden was in line for eventual leadership of the Conservative party—and the post of prime minister when and if the Tories regain power.

Churchill yesterday made his plainest reference to Eden as his successor. Speaking before a meeting of women conservatives, the former prime minister said Eden would "carry on the torch of Conservatism when other and older hands have let it fall."

9 CUMBERLAND TOWNS GAIN

Harrisburg, June 8 (AP)—Substantial gains in population were reported by nine out of ten nearby Cumberland county boroughs in the first unofficial preliminary 1950 census returns in this area.

Carlisle, the county seat, registered a 15.4 per cent gain, totaling 16,128 residents compared to the 1940 total of 13,984.

A gain of 18.7 per cent was shown in Mechanicsburg which now has 6,787 persons as against its 1940 population of 5,709.

Camp Hill, fastest growing residential area across the Susquehanna river, showed an increase of 59 per cent above its total of a decade ago. The population now is 5,774, compared to the old figure of 3,630. New Cumberland showed a handy increase of 36.7 per cent, going from 4,325 to 6,186 persons.

The only community to show a drop was West Fairview which went from 1829 in 1940 to 1758 in the latest census.

New and old figures for other boroughs: Lemoine, 4,569 against 4,398; Mount Holly Springs, 1,674 against 1,290; Newville, 1,785 against 1,758; Wormleysburg, 1,497 against 1,484; and Shippensburg (not including area in Franklin county), 4,994 against 4,661.

MILLIONS FOR NEW PLANTS

Harrisburg, June 8 (AP)—Industries in five southeastern Pennsylvania counties are spending more than $25,000,000 for construction of sewage treatment plants under the Commonwealth's clean streams program. The state Sanitary Water board reported yesterday that thousands of dollars had been invested by industrial plants for waste treatment works even before the intensive state program began in 1945.

DISMISS COMPLAINT

Pittsburgh, June 8 (AP)—The National Labor Relations Board has dismissed a complaint that the Waynesboro (Pa.) Knitting company fired an employee for union activity. The CIO Textile Workers of America had charged that Donald C. Flohr was dismissed November 24, 1947, discriminatorily. A trial examiner found that the board had not acted with discrimination. The NLRB decision upholds the examiner.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

A surprise birthday party was held recently in celebration of the sixth anniversary of Billy Little, son of Mr. and Mrs. William W. Little, 340 South Washington street. MORE CENSUS FIGURES

Williamsport, Pa., June 8 (AP)—Preliminary census figures today showed a population gain in Lycoming county to 100,903 from 93,633 in 1940. Williamsport also increased its population from 44,353 to 44,964.

SURVIVORS OF CRASH TO TAKE MICHIGAN JOBS

Charleston, S. C., June 8 (AP)—Recovering from a soul-trying experience in shark-infested waters, most of the Puerto Rican survivors of an Atlantic ocean plane crash today made plans to continue on to their work in Michigan sugar beet fields.

Thirty-four of the migratory workers were brought here yesterday, after being picked up early Tuesday morning. Their plane, a C-46 owned by Westair company of Seattle, Wash., crash-landed 273 miles off Miami Monday night.

There were 65 persons aboard. The pilot, co-pilot and steward also were with those landed here yesterday by the U. S. Navy destroyer escort Saufley. Eight Puerto Ricans are known dead. There is scant hope for the remaining 20.

Despite their harrowing experience in the shark-haunted waters, 23 of the surviving workers plan to continue to Michigan. Three want to return home. Three others are undecided.

As they were being cared for in Navy barracks here, representatives of the Civil Aeronautics Board and the Puerto Rican government conducted an investigation of the crash. Gordon Matthews, assistant head of the CAB's accident investigation branch, was in San Juan. Other officials were conducting an inquiry from this end.

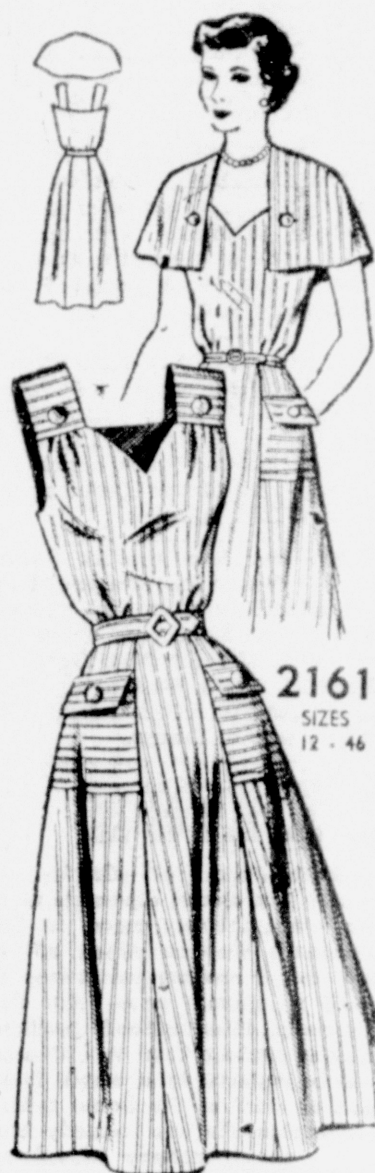

The ship's pilot, interviewed here, credited instinct with a major role in the rescue of the 37 persons.

Pilot Joseph Halsey, 39, of Seattle, had crouched to jump from the escape hatch of the plane, when he stopped and snatched a flashlight. He credited that action to instinct. Later he used the flashlight to blink out an SOS to a sister plane which flew overhead. Halsey said one of his ship's two engines "just went bad."

TRUCKER KILLED

Millersburg, Pa., June 8 (AP)—A Williamsport truck driver was crushed to death about midnight last night when his tractor-trailer crashed into a narrow underpass at nearby Lenkerville, about 25 miles from Harrisburg. State police and firemen worked for an hour to extricate the body of the victim, Charles T. Wright, 31, Williamsport, from the wreckage.

Washington, June 8 (AP)—Senator Maybank (D-S.C.) today predicted a Senate vote Monday to extend federal rent controls despite a one man filibuster by Senator Cain (R-Wash.). Maybank is chairman of the Senate Banking committee, which sent the rent measure to the Senate by an eight to five vote.

Expect Approval Of New DP Bill

Washington, June 8 (AP)—Swift presidential approval is expected for a bill expanding by 91,000 the number of homeless Europeans who may seek a home in this country.

The measure, an enlarged and liberalized version of the 1948 displaced persons bill, was sent to the White House yesterday after the Senate approved it on a voice vote. It calls for the admission of 341,000 DPs to the United States—including 153,000 who have entered under the old bill—by June 30 next year.

RESCUE AIRMEN AFTER NIGHT IN CHILLY WATERS

London, June 8 (AP)—Two U. S. airmen who bailed out of a burning B-29 bomber were rescued today after swimming all night in chilly North sea waters.

Ships and planes pressed the hunt today for six U. S. Air Force men still missing. Searchers last night picked up two other crewmen and the body of still another from the Superfortress soon after it crashed off the Norfolk coast of southeast England with one engine in flames.

A calm sea and favorable weather raised hopes that the dozens of searching ships and planes would locate at least some of the six men still missing.

List Survivors
Headquarters of the U. S. Air Force's Third Aid Division listed these survivors: Capt. Henry J. Walsh, the plane's commander, of Alton, Ill.; Staff Sgt. Warren J. Ebert, Minneapolis, Minn.; Staff Sgt. Charles F. Allen, Derry, N. H. A fourth crewman yet unidentified.

The headquarters did not reveal the identities of those still missing or of the dead airman.

The Air Force said the plane, abandoned when one of its four engines caught fire during a training flight, was from the 72nd Reconnaissance Squadron at Fairfield-Suisun Air Base, Sacramento, Calif. It was in Britain on a training mission.

Walsh and Ebert, in a rubber dinghy, were pulled from the sea almost immediately by the British trawler Warren, which at the same time recovered the dead airman.

Allen and the fourth survivor were rescued early today by combined British-American search forces after the airmen had floated for more than 13 hours in Mae West life jackets. Allen's rescuers said he was "hale and hearty" after his night afloat.

SEE VICTORY FOR WARREN

Washington, June 8 (AP)—Gov. Earl Warren's combined majority in the California primaries was greeted by Senator Brewster (R-Me.) today as also meaning an additional Republican senator.

Brewster is chairman of the Republican Senate campaign committee, which is after every victory possible in an effort to recapture GOP control of the Senate.

In Tuesday's California primaries, Republican Warren almost doubled the vote of James Roosevelt in the Republican and Democratic gubernatorial primaries combined. However Warren failed to repeat his 1946 feat of winning both nominations and his 3rd term bid this fall will be contested by Roosevelt, son of the late President, on the Democratic ticket.

"That (combined majority) means victory this fall for a Warren-Nixon ticket over a Roosevelt-Douglas slate," Senator Brewster told reporters.

Two House members, Reps. Helen Gahagan Douglas, Democrat, and Richard M. Nixon, Republican, were nominated for senator in California, to fill the place of Democratic Senator Downey who did not run for re-election.

Mrs. Douglas has been an ardent New Dealer while Nixon has been prominent in House investigations of alleged Communists and leftist groups.

LIBERATE KOREAN WASPS

Harrisburg, June 8 (AP)—State experts today completed the job of liberating more than 2,000 parasites to prey on Japanese beetles in 14 Pennsylvania communities. The parasites are known as Korean Tiphia wasps. The wasps burrow under ground. The female locates a beetle grub and deposits an egg on the soft underside. When the egg hatches the wasp grub devours the beetle grub. Each wasp destroys scores of beetles in this manner.

St. Louis, June 8 (AP)—Investigators reported Tuesday that confidential files seized in a raid on a national betting headquarters told of extensive wagers being handled through Western Union managers.

Copies of thousands of telegrams and letters were obtained in the Monday night raid. Police arrested Sidney Wyman and Steve Montefelice.

Prosecuting Attorney Stanley Wallach of St. Louis county called Wyman a "current kingpin of the gambling fraternity."

Washington, June 8 (AP)—Two Republican Senators have proposed that Congress set up a commission to study the problem of finding an aid program to carry on after the European Recovery program ends.

Senator Saltanall (R-Mass.) and Smith (R-N. J.) made this proposal as Senator McMahon (D-Conn.) asked for early hearings on a resolution calling for a special session of the United Nations assembly to discuss world-wide disarmament.

The Texas Lunch and Elks moved into a tie with the Moose for first place in the tight softball league race by scoring victories Wednesday evening.

In the opening game the Texas Lunch handed the Eagles their fourth straight reverse by an 11-5 score. Trailing by a 9-0 count at the end of five innings, the Eagles rallied for four runs in the sixth frame and added another in the seventh. The lone extra base hit of the game was a double by Fazenbaker.

A six-run barrage in the second inning featured the Elks' 7-4 win over the Lentz Legion in a spirited contest which was played in fast time. Tonsil, right fielder for the legionnaires, poked a long homerun to center field for the losers in the third while Ross Sachs also hit for the circuit for the Elks in the second inning uprising.

Harrisburg, June 8 (AP)—Persons on relief and suffering from tuberculosis, anemia, ulcers, diabetes and gall bladder troubles may once again obtain special diet allowances from the Commonwealth.

The allowances were restored by the state Board of Public Assistance after they had been discontinued for a three-month period. The money dispensed varies according to the type of diet and the individual medical treatment prescribed by a doctor.

Interstate League

(By The Associated Press)
Wilmington continues to look like the only team with a chance of catching the front-running Hagerstown Braves in the Interstate league. Both the Braves and Wilmington's Blue Rocks won last night to remain six games apart.

Hagerstown's Al Bennet chalked up his seventh win without a loss—this one at the expense of the Sunbury Athletics 11-4. The Braves clinched matters with a five-run spurge in the third inning on four hits and three walks. Wilmington's hustling Blue Rocks edged the Lancaster Red Roses 7-6.

Harrisburg took a firmer grip of third place by downing the fourth-place York White Roses 4-2. The sixth-place Trenton Giants climbed to within a game and a half of the fifth-place Allentown Cardinals by defeating the Red Birds 3-2.

Tonight's schedule: Hagerstown at Lancaster, Trenton at Sunbury, York at Allentown and Wilmington at Harrisburg.

Eastern League

(By The Associated Press)
The run-happy Hartford Chiefs hope to harass the Binghamton Triplets again tonight in the second of a three-game series.

The Chiefs scalped the Triplets, 24-6, last night. They pushed across 22 runs in the first three innings, 13 of them in the third frame. Hartford is now two games behind Binghamton and Utica, which are tied for third place in the Eastern league.

Utica lost to second-place Albany, 6-5. Fred Laniero stole home with what proved to be the winning run. The Wilkes-Barre Indians preserved their five-and-a-half game lead with a 7-6 triumph over Williamsport. A homer by Doug Hansen in the ninth inning with two away did the trick. The Elmira Pioneers edged the Scranton Miners 3-2.

YANKEES HALT TIGERS' SEVEN GAME STREAK

By JACK HAND

(Associated Press Sports Writer)
Cooling off the hot clubs is an old Yankee custom. Now it's sizzling Detroit that New York has dunked in chill water.

Red Rolfe's Tigers strode into the Yankee Stadium with seven straight wins and an .002 edge on first place. Unbeaten since they left home, the spirited Detroit club boasted a dazzling road record of 20-3, or .870.

This was it. The big test of the early season. If the red hot Tigers could roll over the Yankees and then knock off Boston, they would take charge of the race.

They may do it yet, for it's a three-game series in New York. Yesterday's 5-4 loss to the Yanks was only the opener. But with Tommy Byrne, an old Tiger killer with a 10-2 lifetime record against Detroit, pitching for New York today, the chances are not bright.

Home run power from the bats of Joe DiMaggio, Phil Rizzuto and Billy Johnson swung the balance of power in a tight battle between Lefty Hal Newhouse and Vic Raschi.

Each time the Tigers scrambled into a lead, a zinging Yankee home run would pull them back. Finally a single won the game. It was a ball hit by Yogi Berra to Shortstop Johnny Lipton that handcuffed the Tiger infielder in the seventh.

Six Massacre Browns
While the Yanks and Tigers wrestled through the hottest afternoon of the New York season, Boston piled up a staggering 20-4 score against St. Louis.

Still very much in the race, the Red Sox blasted 23 hits off Brownie pitching while Joe Dobson rode home easily with his seventh win. Little Bobby Shantz, 5-foot-7-inch Philadelphia lefthander, pitched the A's first shutout of the year, a 5-0 night victory over Chicago.

Washington snapped its seven-game losing streak, nipping Cleveland 5-4 on Johnny Ostrowski's eighth-inning homer following Irv Noren's single.

Once again Brooklyn took over undisputed possession of the National league lead, whipping Pittsburgh 9-0, while St. Louis took a bad 10-2 licking from Boston. Both were night games.

Don Newcombe, Giant Dodger Negro ace, followed his recent fifth-inning conquest of St. Louis with a six-hit blanking of the weary Pirates.

Rookie Bill Macdonald, only 19, was shelved out in a five-run eighth inning. Pittsburgh now has lost five in a row and 14 of its last 15.

Stan Musial joined the other St. Louis crimples during the loss to Boston's Warren Spahn. Stan suffered a cut between two fingers of his left hand, taking a throw from Al Brazle. He will be out for a day or two.

Rookie Bob Miller, up from Terre Haute, lifted the Philadelphia Phils into second place—ahead of St. Louis and only a half game behind Brooklyn—with a 4-0 victory over Cincinnati. It was the fourth straight win for Miller, who scattered seven hits.

Folks will have to take the New York Giants seriously if they continue to roll up scores like yesterday's 13-4 romp over Chicago. Leo Durocher's Giants have won five in a row and six of seven on their second western trip.

Yesterday's Sports In Brief

(By The Associated Press)

Golf
Dallas—Medalist Polly Riley of Fort Worth, defending champion Betsy Rawls of Austin, Texas; and other favorites won their first round matches in the women's trans-Mississippi tournament.

Ardmore, Pa.—The U. S. Golf association announced it is increasing the prize money for the 1950 open tournament starting today by approximately $5,000. The increase, for this year only, makes the total prize money about $15,000.

Racing
New York—Nell K. ($6.70) raced to a longfist triumph in the top flight handicap at Belmont Park.

Stanton, Del.—Merry Xmas ($11.90) easily won the Polly Drummond stakes at Delaware Park.

General
London—The British announced their Whitman cup tennis team, consisting of Mrs. Betty Hilton, Mrs. Tony Mottram, Joan Curry, Joan Quertier, Kay Tuckey and Mrs. J. J. Walker-Smith.

Two Hanover Horses In Golden West Trot

Arcadia, Calif., June 8 (AP)—Eight standardbred horses appeared certain starters as entries were awaited today for the $50,000 Golden West trot at Santa Anita Park Saturday.

Heading the roll of candidates, barring last-minute mishap, is Proximity, the heavy pre-race favorite. Others expected to be named were Chris Spencer, Demon Hanover, Egan Hanover, Dutch Harbor, Full Bloom, Hodgen and Lucky Lee Prince.

Proximity, a mare, is queen of the trotters campaigning here and is the general choice to pick up the $22,500 top money in the mile and one quarter attraction.

The fifty-grand trot winds up the Grand Circuit portion of the Western Harness Racing Association meeting. On June 17, however, the WHA stages its companion $50,000 special, the Golden West pace.

NATIONAL OPEN PLAY BEGINS

Ardmore, Pa., June 8 (AP)—Sam Sneed's putter, Ben Hogan's legs and the weather were the chief topics of conversation as 165 of golf-dom's very select teed off today in the 50th National Open championship.

The first of 55 threesomes set out over Merion's 6,694 well-trapped weed-fringed yards at 7 a.m. (EST). Dick Mayer, young, blond-haired professional of Old Greenwich, Conn., was the first man off, accompanied by Loddie Kempa of Kansas City, the lone left hander, and Clarence Ehresman of Cheltenham, Pa.

Contenders will be swinging until almost dark in the opening round of this rugged 72-hole test that has broken the hearts of champions. The tournament winds up with a double-barreled 36 holes Saturday.

The weather rated top billing along with Sneed and Hogan, who have been established solid favorites. Two days of near-90 temperatures have left the broad, undulating greens hard as concrete and slick as glass. Each carter was packed by a 300-pound roller last night to make sure they'd be lightning fast.

Unless there is some relief by showers, most of the pros agreed, four rounds of 71, one over par, will be sufficient to take the prize. The weather forecast was increasing cloudiness today with scattered showers tomorrow afternoon.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

Ardmore, Pa., June 8 (AP)—A favorite subject of more-or-less serious conversation around the practice green at Merion is Freddie Haas' new cross-handed putting grip. . . . Fred insists it gives him better control of his club and some of the other pros are copying him. . . . But when someone sinks a long putt in practice, you'll hear: "Was that crosshanded? . . . Most of the guys remain strictly orthodox, but there is one left-hander in the open, Loddie Kempa, and he also uses a wood-shafted putter, probably one of the few that remain. . . . The fans are trying to work up a sartorial contest between Jimmy Demaret, whose penchant for loud clothes is well known, and Dale Morey, who has been dubbed the "Demaret of the Amateurs." . . . Morey was reinstated as an amateur a couple of months ago, so it could be he decided he couldn't compete against Jimmy. . . . Frank Stranahan, who has said the wrong thing before, came close to doing it again when he mentioned the "Merion Cricket club" while talking for the newsreels. The press had been warned that it been the Merion Golf club for years, but maybe they forgot to tell the players.

COUPLE INJURED
Allentown, Pa., June 8 (AP)—A Lansford, Pa., man and his wife were injured when their car struck a stone wall along Route 309 at Lehigh Mountain. The victims, Walter D. Hobson, 66, manager of the Lewis Insurance Co., Lansford, and his wife, Blodwyn, were taken to Sacred Heart hospital. He has a possible skull fracture, fractures of both legs and internal injuries. She has fractures of the spine, both ankles and thigh as well as a possible skull fracture and internal injuries.

ROB MUSEUM IN PITTSBURGH

Pittsburgh, June 8 (AP)—Thieves passed up a group of fans once owned by Marie Antoinette but stole 23 other "historically valuable" objects from the Carnegie Institute museum.

Wallace Richards, museum director, said the theft was discovered yesterday and that the robbers apparently remained in the museum after the closing time Tuesday night.

The things taken were from the museum's Dupuy collection—donated by Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Dupuy. He was a business associate of steel magnate Andrew Carnegie.

Today's Talk

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

BY PROXY

No matter how many friends, or acquaintances, we may have, the individual is a solitary figure, living the greater part of his life quite alone. It is his interests that keep him alive and enriched. Like a magnet, the things that he has learned to love are attracted to him and are melted into his personality. There is but a handful of friends that any of us hold throughout life, and many of those drop away as we increase in years. Thus it is that much of our joy of contact must be only by proxy—the imagined ones before us only in spirit. And it is by this method that we have grown rich in mind and heart, through a proxy friendship with the great. This very evening I ate alone, but dined with Charles Lamb, who left this earthly habitation some years ago. But he left rich thoughts behind, and so became my friend.

I have often dined alone with the proxy figure of Shakespeare as my guest! And innumerable others, who have inspired me, entertained me, and advised me as well. Even my mother, long gone, has come to me by proxy and I have sat and mentally talked with her, told her all about my life since we last said farewell. Thousands of the great are about me in my library, through their written books, who talk to me at will, by proxy.

There are so many people whom we would like to know personally. But even in a long life we are accorded the privilege but frequently. We have to be content with their friendship by proxy, in books that they have written, songs that they may have composed, or through some great public acts performed effecting our comfort or happiness.

We even accept God, by proxy, in the wonderful things that He has created, this proxy being none the less genuine, because represented in His great universe, and all that it contains—even man himself being created in His image, and every insect and flower emphasizing His wisdom. Take away our endless proxies and we would be bereft indeed!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "The Power of Concentration."

BEST SORT OF TROUBLE
She said: "We wanted trouble; to be summoned out of bed to set aright the pillow for a little, tousled head. And this is why we married: to do all the many things Which comprise the sort of trouble a little baby brings."

"Are children too much trouble, as some people think and say? Well, for just that sort of trouble to the Lord we'd often pray. We wanted to be worried, to be bothered by such care. And in the glad excitement children often cause to share."

"We knew that pleasure-seeking very seldom we could roam. But we wanted all those evenings we should have to stay at home. We knew if we had children, time to them we'd have to give. Yes, at times, they are a trouble; but that's how we asked to live."

Crown Prince Carol Is Proclaimed King of Rumania: Bucharest, June 7 (AP)—It has been decided that former Crown Prince Carol, who made a dramatic return to Bucharest by airplane from exile yesterday, is to be proclaimed King of Rumania this evening.

The proclaiming of the former Crown Prince Carol as king will remove from the list of European kings, little King Michael, who ascended the throne on July 20, 1927, when he was not quite six years old.

REMAINING 33 COMMUNISTS IN DIET DEFIANT

By TOM LAMBERT

Tokyo, June 8 (AP)—The Diet's remaining 33 Communists today defiantly declared war on "conspiracies" to outlaw the Japanese Red party.

It was the first word from them since General MacArthur purged 41 Communist leaders from Japanese political life. Eight of those removed were members of Parliament.

The Red 33 still in Parliament pledged to fight the "colonization, military bases and war preparations policies" of the pro-occupation government.

So far the occupation and the government have left the 33 Diet members alone. They are a minority in an assembly of 716 members.

Hint Another Purge
But there was a vague hint of another purge. From Osaka the newspaper Chubu Nippon reported one of Japan's assistant attorney generals said "The third purge of the Communist party will begin late this week."

The Communist Diet members issued their "fight" statement after choosing writer Karoku Hosokawa to lead them in future Diet sessions. He replaces, purged Sanzo Nozaka, generally regarded as the brains of the Japan Communist party.

The Reds did not mention MacArthur. But they did refer to the purge he started two days ago by banning 24 members of the party's politburo and yesterday outlawing 17 reputed policy makers of the flamboyant newspaper Akahata, party organ.

Keep Defiant Tone
Party members thus far have made no overt moves in protest to MacArthur's house cleaning. But Akahata kept up a defiant tone.

The newspaper continued to threaten a general strike "in defense of the Communist party." It announced a protest mass meeting in Kyoto next Tuesday.

One headline claimed "Information officers are acting as spies—selling out patriots." With the suggestiveness typical of Akahata this could refer to Japanese police or American counter-intelligence agents.

CONFESSIONS READ AT TRIAL

Norristown, Pa., June 8 (AP)—Three separate statements in which the commonwealth says Robert Sherman confessed the Merion Cricket club slaying of David R. Clement were presented by the prosecution before it rested its case in the 21-year-old short order cook's trial. The statements, presented by Assistant District Attorney Edward R. D'Joseph yesterday, differed only in one respect. That was the complicity of Porter Royal Stone, Navy petty officer who goes on trial June 12 charged with murder in Clement's death.

The first statement quoted Sherman as saying he committed the deed alone while Stone waited in his automobile in the parking lot of the exclusive Main Line club.

In the second statement he said the Navy man took part in the slaying. In the third statement, mailed to the district attorney, Sherman was quoted as calling his second statement "a pack of lies" and absolved Stone.

The first statement was signed February 27, two weeks after Clement was found strangled in his room at the club where he worked as a bellhop while attending the University of Pennsylvania as a post graduate student. The second statement was signed March 17, and the third five days later. Sherman is accused of strangling Clement, son of a prominent Lowell, Mass., family, with his own neckties on the night of February 13.

Customers' Corner

Have you noticed that the price is plainly marked on every item you buy in your A&P?

That's done to help us make sure you will be charged the correct price.

It also gives you a chance to check your bill and see that we haven't made a mistake.

If you should ever find any difference between the price marked on the item and the price you paid, please let us know.

A&P

A&P's wonderful way of selling Fresh Fruits and Vegetables!

All fruits and vegetables are carefully inspected when they arrive at your A&P Super Market and several times a day thereafter. Although still wholesome, any that don't meet A&P's high standards are immediately reduced in price and put on a "Quick-Sale" table. Thus, top-grade fruits and vegetables in top condition are the only kind ever included in A&P's regular produce displays.

PEACE TALK IN TWO KEYS BEING HEARD

By CLARK BEACH
(AP Foreign Affairs Analyst)

Peace talk, from two widely divergent angles, has been a leading theme in Washington for some days.

Many top officials, from the President down, have been saying that the outlook for peace is better now than for some time because rearmament is progressing so satisfactorily. The military strength which the Atlantic Pact nations are developing will act as a deterrent to Russia if she contemplates an attack, they say.

But Trygve Lie, secretary general of the United Nations, in the proposals recently made public, suggested that new negotiations be commenced to bring the armaments race under control. Then yesterday a bi-partisan group of 11 senators and representatives proposed that Congress advocate an immediate special session of the United Nations General Assembly to stop the armaments race.

Acheson Statement
Dean Acheson, secretary of state, yesterday expressed sympathy with Lie's proposals and gave assurance that the United States would continue its four-year effort in the United Nations to find some method for effective armaments control. But in the following statement he made it clear that he does not feel that a reduction in armaments by the Western powers at this time will promote the cause of peace.

"We must carry forward in our own determination to create situations of strength in the free world because this is the only basis on which lasting agreement with the Soviet government is possible. This in our judgment is the road to peace."

If any new disarmament negotiations were begun at this time, the view of diplomatic officials in Washington is that the Soviet Union would adopt its customary practice of using the conference as a means of promoting some purpose of its own. And real disarmament is unlikely to be that purpose.

This Soviet tactic, as seen in the United Nations, was thus described by Acheson:

"The difference between the Soviet attitude and our own and other Western governments' attitudes toward the United Nations is that the Soviet government uses it as an instrumentality for whatever kind of maneuver it wishes to indulge in at the time; whereas we do our best to carry out the purposes of the charter."

Some observers wouldn't be surprised to see the Russians eagerly agree to any new disarmament conference which is proposed, although it is now estimated that they are spending almost three times as much on their military program as the United States. They have been talking peace for four years and making a variety of proposals for armaments limitation. But whenever the Western powers have pinned them down to a practical method of reducing armaments, they have lost interest or exercised their veto.

Asks For Anthracite Research Laboratory

Washington, June 8 (AP)—A bill to establish a $10,000,000 anthracite research laboratory in Wilkes-Barre, Pa., was introduced Tuesday by Rep. Flood (D-Pa.).

Flood, who comes from Wilkes-Barre, noted in a speech for the House that a government laboratory for research in hard coal was recently opened at Schuylkill Haven, Pa., but he called that "a tea kettle."

The original appropriation for the Schuylkill Haven laboratory was $430,000. The general appropriation bill now being considered by Congress contains $300,000 to give the laboratory another wing.

Congress finally designated Schuylkill Haven as the site after a hot and heated battle over whether it should be in the northern hard coal fields or southern hard coal fields of Pennsylvania.

NAMED DIRECTOR

Syracuse, N. Y., June 8 (AP)—Herbert A. Snyder, of Montoursville, Pa., has been named a director of the Holstein-Friesian association of America. Snyder was chosen at the association's 65th annual convention yesterday to succeed Albert B. Craig, Pittsburgh, who had served the four-year term and was not eligible for re-election.

2,200 ON STRIKE

Philadelphia, June 8 (AP)—About

2,200 production and maintenance workers in two plants of the Electric Storage Battery company, struck today in a pension dispute. A crowd of workers gathered in front of both plants as a handful of pickets paraded with signs reading "Exile unfair to older help" and "Exile on strike for a decent pension."

MOSES DEBATES HEADING MINE OWNERS GROUP

Pittsburgh, June 8 (AP)—Would you take on the ticklish job of handling John L. Lewis at coal contract time for from $50,000 to $65,000 a year? That's the question a Pittsburgh industrialist is debating these days.

He is Henry M. Moses, picked by fellow coal operators to head a new permanent association of coal mine owners. They want a central figure to take over the task of negotiating with Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers.

Moses, boss of most of the United States Steel Corporation's coal mining operations, hasn't said yes or no. But his friends and associates in the coal industry predict he'll take the job.

Moses is president of the H. C. Frick Coke company, a "Big Steel" subsidiary. If he quits to run the newly organized bituminous (soft coal) operators association, one of his main jobs will be dealing with Lewis.

Half of Nation's Mines

Operator associations in Central and western Pennsylvania, Northern West Virginia and Ohio set up the new agency. They hope other operator groups will come into the fold. Illinois and Indiana men still are pondering an invitation. So are captive mine owners. They are steel companies whose coal is kept off the commercial market.

Soft coal operators now in the association account for about 150,000,000 tons of annual production. That compares with the nation's total output last year of around 430,000,000 tons.

If Illinois and Indiana operators sign up, the association will represent about half the nation's coal mining capacity.

Southern operators have their own association which negotiates separately with Lewis. Northern coal men are holding the door open if the southerners want to make it a solid front. So far they haven't.

Sources within the association say many details—like the exact salary to be offered the head man—remain unsettled. A salary as high as $65,000 has been mentioned. The last details probably will be worked out before another month goes by.

Moses' decision probably will be made known then.

Shallow cultivation should be used for roses since young feeder roots are near the surface.

Emmitsburg

St. Euphemia's To Graduate Fifteen

Fifteen students are scheduled to graduate from St. Euphemia's school, Emmitsburg, Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock at exercises in St. Joseph's Catholic church.

Rev. Father Francis Stauble, C.M., will address the graduates and award the diplomas. The following awards will be given: For excellence in religion, donated by Mrs. Mae Kerrian Campbell; award for excellence in history, donated by the Knights of Columbus of Emmitsburg; award for general excellence, donated by the Women's club of Emmitsburg.

The graduates will recite in unison an act of thanksgiving for benefits of a Catholic education. During the exercises the graduates will sing several hymns. Following the graduation exercises, benediction will be given by Rev. Father Francis Stauble.

Among those to graduate are Dorothy Topper, Dolores Topper, Agnes Wormley, Marie Keepers, Geraldine White, Donald Shriner, Francis Cool, Patrick Boland, James Hobbs, Joseph Scott, Christine Timmerman, Rosemary Welty, George Hobbs, Agnes Raley and Donald Chrimer.

DISABLED VETS AT CONVENTION

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., June 8 (AP)—The 20th annual convention of the Pennsylvania Disabled American Veterans opened today with delegates on hand from most of the 102 state DAV chapters.

The organization's executive board, at a meeting last night, voiced opposition to any future legislation that would jeopardize the veterans' or their benefits.

"We want hospital care for those who have borne the battle and it is up to us to see that they are not forgotten," said Deno Pantelakos, of Wilkes-Barre, department commander.

Pantelakos also uttered a warning concerning the spread of Communism.

"Communism is here and there and we are resolved 100 per cent to see that it does not tear down our structure of free government which has been brought about by sweat and blood ever since the Revolutionary War," he said.

The DAV convention runs through Sunday.

In the poultry world "cannibalism" is encountered when one chicken picks the head of another, drawing blood.

SAYS HOSPITAL OF NO USE IF "EMPTY SHELL"

Philadelphia, June 8 (AP)—By the time the Army declares the Valley Forge hospital at Phoenixville, Pa., surplus "it will be an empty shell," and of no use to Pennsylvania, says the state Secretary of Health.

"If all the equipment is taken out," Dr. Norris W. Vaux said yesterday, "it is unlikely that the state could use the empty buildings."

It would cost millions of dollars to re-equip the institution, he declared, adding the money for such an expenditure is not available at this time.

"If the Army gave the hospital to us today," Dr. Vaux said, "we could take up the slack in the long line of tuberculosis cases within a month or two. If the equipment is taken out, it would take six months to a year before the hospital could be 20 per cent occupied."

Army officials have declined to make any concessions or promises until the property has been declared surplus.

Some Equipment Moved

The state Health Secretary said he "doubted very much" that Pennsylvania would acquire the hospital, basing his observation on what he described as the results of a conference with top Army officials in Washington last Friday, and on the fact that "40 per cent of the equipment" has been crated for shipment.

At Phoenixville a hospital spokesman said only 220 patients remain at the hospital, adding that since February 1, 220 have been transferred to other hospitals or returned to duty.

He disclosed some equipment already has been moved from the institution and said that further information on the matter must be regarded as "restricted" and would have to come from the Plant and Operation Division of the Surgeon General's office.

The remaining patients, the spokesman added, are "ready to be transferred as soon as we get instructions."

Termed "Firetrap"

The hospital probably will be "cleared" by June 30, he said.

The move to close five service hospitals, including Valley Forge, was made last April by Defense Secretary Louis A. Johnson.

Civic and patriotic groups in the Philadelphia area objected to the proposed closing and suggested the Veterans Administration take over.

Veterans Administrator Carl A. Gray, however, branded the hospital a "firetrap" and declared the Drug Addicts Pay Much To Underworld

Washington, June 8 (AP)—Senate investigators studied reports today that a powerful underground ring is reaping riches from the misery of at least 50,000 drug addicts.

The reports came from Commissioner H. J. Anslinger of the U.S. Narcotics Bureau. Anslinger's force of 175 agents, some senators, say is too small to cope with the situation.

Anslinger gave his estimate of the number of narcotics addicts to the special committee investigating crime and gambling.

Chairman Kefauver (D-Tenn.) told reporters the number represents those who buy narcotics illegally—that is, from sources outside the medical world.

Anslinger has given the Senate group a list of 800 persons who, he says, form a criminal ring dealing in narcotics, crime and even murder.

Kefauver said it is obvious that the narcotics traffic extends to every city of any size in the United States.

Washington, June 8 (AP)—The president of an AFL glass workers union has been quoted as saying the union is trying to get organized labor to boycott American merchants selling glassware imported from Europe. W. L. Orme, president of the Cambridge Glass company, Cambridge, O., said President Harry H. Cook of the American Flint Glass Workers Union of North America has so advised retail merchants all over the country in a May 16 letter.

VA didn't want it.

Shortly thereafter Gov. James H. Duff requested the hospital be made available to Pennsylvania.

There never was any reply to Duff's letter to Johnson, but Defense Department spokesmen indicated the governor's request would be granted.

Last month President Truman ruled that Valley Forge and two other hospitals would not be transferred to the VA, apparently clearing the way for making the hospital available to the commonwealth.

FIREMEN VOTE FOR PURCHASE OF MACK TRUCK

Acting upon the recommendation of the truck committee, Alpha Fire company No. 1 Tuesday evening, decided to purchase a Mack truck which with a three phase, 750 gallon pumper at an approximate cost of $13,500. An allowance of approximately $1,000 will be made on the truck to be traded in, from which the firemen will remove equipment.

Blue prints will be drawn up and submitted by the Mack truck company in the near future. The truck committee, consisting of Henry E. Waltman, chairman; Hadley Blocher, William Keefer, Levi Hull and Lowell Ruggles, through Chairman Waltman, submitted bids and specifications on various trucks, but gave preference to the Mack truck.

The recently reorganized ladies auxiliary asked to have the cupboards in the firehall repaired. This was granted. The auxiliary also requested a large size coffee maker, but this request was tabled.

Want Truck Checked

Secretary Harry W. Badders was instructed to communicate with the American LaFrance company, requesting them to send their engineer to check the company's No. 1 truck.

Fire Chief Jay D. Basehoar reported that the company responded to two calls since the last meeting. Services of the company were not needed for the one call, and the other was a stand-by call, when a trailer truck loaded with oil upset last week on the Baltimore pike near the state line.

The following candidates were elected into membership: Robert Baughman, Earl Keefer, Joseph Scader, Harry Stately, Emory Win-

Bills were ordered paid amounting to $265.88 of which $126 was a payment to the Adams County Firemen's association for the 1950 per capita tax on 252 members. Receipts were $19 of which $5 was for services rendered by the company. A new social committee was appointed, consisting of Wayne Arnold, Edward Loeffel, Henry E. Waltman and Richard Knipple. When the delegates and provisional members to the Cumberland Valley Firemen's association were appointed last month, one appointee was named who was over the age limit. Walter Myers was appointed to replace him.

President Bernard Selby was in charge of the meeting and Harry W. Badders presented the secretary's report. Refreshments were served to 63 members by the social committee consisting of Jack Crouse, Herbert Frock and Earl Weaver. The next meeting will be held on July 11 as their regular meeting night falls on July 4.

Funeral services were held this afternoon at 2 o'clock in the J. W. Little and son funeral home, Littlestown, for Jacob L. Miller, 71, who died suddenly Monday evening at 10 o'clock at his home, South Queen street, Littlestown. Services were in charge of the Rev. Dr. Howard Schley Fox, pastor of Trinity Reformed church, Gettysburg, of which church the deceased was a member, and the Rev. Frank E. Reynolds, pastor of Redeemer's Reformed church, Littlestown. Interment was in the Mt. Carmel cemetery, Littlestown.

Serving as pallbearers were Leroy Miller, William Jacoby, Robert Jacoby, Victor Reynolds, Paul Bowman and Harold Wildasin.

The annual strawberry and ladies night will be held tonight at 8 o'clock in the POS of A hall, Littlestown, by Littlestown Castle No. 31, Ancient Order of Knights of the Mystic Chain.

NEW UNIFORM JUSTICE CODE FOR MILITARY

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, June 8 (AP) — The armed forces have undergone some modernizing in the field of justice.

From the beginning the Army and Navy, and later the Air Force, have had rules for handling crimes and misconduct by service people.

Being drunk would be a minor offense. Desertion, disobedience, murder, theft, rape would be major crimes.

As the years passed the rules piled up. So did the general foginess of the legal language which got written into the rules.

And—the three services had different ways of handling their problems. Further, their idea of justice was not the same as the American civilians' idea of justice. So this spring Congress passed a bill—signed into law May 6 by President Truman—to do several things.

New Uniform Code

Give accused members of the armed forces more protection against injustice; lay down the same rules for all three services; and modernize the language covering offenses and trials.

This has been called the "new uniform code of military justice" to give the services time to adapt themselves to the changes, it won't go into effect until May 31, 1951.

Following is an example of how the new code will work. Beside it, the old, or present, procedure will be explained in parentheses. The Army will be used for illustration. There's no room here to explain the differences under the old Navy setup.

Private John Jones is accused of a serious crime. He must be told specifically what his offense is within 24 hours after his arrest. (He didn't have to be told under the old code till he was brought to trial.) The commanding officer appoints the court which tries Jones. The judge is an Army officer but also must be a lawyer. He will act as judge only. (Under the old code he had to be a lawyer but, after the trial, acted as a member of the jury, too.)

The jury in the case must have at least five men. They don't have to be lawyers. Any enlisted man like Jones can demand that one-third of his jury be enlisted men like himself. (Under the old code, only officers sat on a jury. Enlisted men were excluded.)

Jones must have a lawyer to defend him. He can hire a civilian lawyer, if he wants to and has the money. Or the commanding officer will appoint a defense counsel for him, a military man who must be a lawyer. (Under the old code, Jones could get a military officer to act as his counsel but this officer didn't have to be a lawyer.)

If Jones is convicted, his case automatically goes to his commanding officer on appeal. (Same under the old code.)

Some Other Highlights

If the C. O. upholds Jones' conviction, the case automatically goes on appeal to a review board of three officers—in the Army it would be three captains—all of whom must be lawyers. (Same under old code.)

If the review board also turns him down, Jones can, through his attorney, carry his case to the "court of military appeals." This is the Supreme court for all armed services. It will have three civilians as judges—all must be lawyers—appointed by the President with the approval of the Senate. Their pay will be $17,500 each.

Under the old code, final appeal was to a board of three generals who were lawyers. But this was a complicated procedure, some cases got to them, some didn't. Under the new code, any man convicted of a serious crime can appeal to the military court of appeals.

These are only some of the highlights of the new code as it applies to cases of serious crimes.

The shell often is described as nature's own packing case for the egg.

Littlestown

Littlestown—Mr. and Mrs. Stanley B. Stover, East King street, Littlestown, and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Strayer, Chambersburg, formerly of Littlestown, will be in the group of approximately 225 members and their ladies from Zembo Shrine, Harrisburg, who will leave Harrisburg tonight on a special train for Los Angeles, Calif., where they will attend the National Shrine which will be held during the week of July 18 to 24. They will visit various points of interest both going west and when returning east. They expect to return to Littlestown July 1.

Paul Kammerer, Littlestown, son of the Rev. and Mrs. David S. Kammerer, West King street, will receive his certificate in architectural drawing and estimating tonight from the Penn State extension school, York. Those from Littlestown who will attend the graduating exercises are Mrs. Paul Kammerer and daughter, Cynthia, and the Rev. and Mrs. Kammerer.

The Rev. and Mrs. Paul Hamsher and daughter, Heather, Altoona, are spending the week with the Rev. and Mrs. Kenneth D. James and son, Kenneth, West King street.

Mrs. John LeGore, president, was in charge of the monthly meeting of the Ladies' Aid society of Redeemer's Reformed church, held Tuesday evening in the social hall of the church. Mrs. LeGore read a Scripture lesson from the 21st chapter of Revelation and offered prayer. A secretary's report was presented by Mrs. Frank E. Reynolds and a treasurer's report by Mrs. Ralph Weaver. Mrs. LeGore and Mrs. Reynolds, who are the representatives of the society to the Adams County Home auxiliary, reported on the May meeting of the auxiliary. The next meeting will be postponed until July 11 on account of the Fourth of July and will be held at the Samuel H. Higinbotham cottage, March Creek Heights. The society will serve a banquet on June 28 to the Adams county executive board of the Girl Scout council. Barbara Swam gave a guess package which was received to Bette Weaver.

Mrs. Maurice Wareheim, Park avenue, was hostess to the June meeting of the Mite society of St. Paul's Lutheran church on Tuesday evening, with Mrs. Emma Norwood, president, in charge of the meeting and the program. Mrs. Wareheim read the 27th Psalm as a Scripture lesson and Mrs. David S. Kammerer offered prayer. A program of readings was presented as follows: "In His Likeness," Mrs. Walter Groce; "Turtle Dove Talk," and "Two Classes of People," Mrs. Minnie Miller; "A Thirst for Healing," Mrs. Edwin Plunkert; "No Exaggeration," Mrs. Ellen Peaser, and "The Preacher's Mother," Mrs. Maurice Wareheim. There also were several group contests in charge of Mrs. Wareheim. The program closed with group singing. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. John R. Byers, East King street, on a date to be announced.

The Primary and Junior departments of Redeemer's Reformed church will hold a Children's Day rehearsal at the church on Friday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock.

The monthly meeting of the Alta Hummer missionary society of St. John's Lutheran church, previously announced for tonight, has been postponed until Thursday, June 15 at 8 p.m. It will be held at the home of Mrs. Lloyd L. Staveland, Park avenue with Mrs. Samuel Renner as the leader. A white elephant party will be held.

The Eagles defeated the Rookies by a score of 11 to 6 in the Littlestown softball league on Wednesday night. Tonight the contest will be between Harry's and Sonny's and Central Tavern.

Vice President Claude Gerrick was in charge of the monthly meeting of the Kingsdale Volunteer Fire company which was held Monday evening in their new building, which is nearing completion. Edgar Wolfe presented the secretary's report. There were 18 members in attendance. All bills were ordered paid. The main item for business was the second annual carnival which will be held during the week of August 21. The following committee was appointed to arrange the exhibits at the carnival: Harry Toms, chairman; Luther Hess, Fred Gerrick, Raymond Reed and Norman Utz. It was decided to rent tents for housing some of the exhibits at the carnival. A refreshment committee, consisting of Malcolm Shadle, Elwood Albin and Preston Crabbe was appointed for the quarterly meeting of the Adams County Firemen's association which will be held at Kingsdale on July 10. Samuel D. Snyder, Jr. and John Moritz were received into the membership of the company. A special meeting of the company will be held Monday, July 3, at 8 p.m.

The Littlestown Fire Auxiliary held a regular meeting Monday evening in the Alpha Fire hall. There were 19 members and one visitor in attendance. Bernard Selby, president of the Alpha Fire company was in attendance and asked the auxiliary for their assistance at the annual firemen's carnival which will begin on August 7. A picnic will be held for the members and their families on the lawn at the home of Samuel Wildasin, near town, on July 18, when a covered dish supper will be served. The next regular meeting will be held July 31. It will be a combination of the July and August meetings.

CLASS OF 1950
EMMITSBURG HIGH SCHOOL

EMMITSBURG HI WILL GRADUATE 24 ON FRIDAY

Graduation exercises will be held at Emmitsburg high school Friday evening at 8 o'clock with 24 students scheduled to receive diplomas at that time.

The annual commencement activities at the school got underway May 27 when the baccalaureate program was held at the Methodist church with the Rev. E. P. Welker delivering the sermon. Hymns were sung by the graduates and a solo by Mrs. Blaire.

Friday morning the annual Senior Assembly will be held at the high school, with the program entirely produced by the class of 1950. The class will, prophecy and history will be read at the program and a number of musical selections will be presented by the class members.

Also scheduled for Friday morning's assembly is the presentation of a number of awards to outstanding students of the class. Among them will be a prize for the student who excelled in music, presented by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Veterans of Foreign Wars; the mathematics prize donated by the Women's club of Emmitsburg; awards to the outstanding boy and girl 4-H club member, a certificate for the best essay awarded by the Americanism committee of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Department of Maryland; a prize for the best essay on "What It Means To Me To Be An American," donated by the Veterans of Foreign Wars post No. 6658 of Emmitsburg; letter awards for general excellence and certificates to girls of the eleventh and twelfth grades who passed the Red Cross First Aid course.

During the morning service moving up exercises will be held, with each class moving to next year's seats.

The graduation exercises Friday evening at 8 o'clock at the high school will open with invocation by the Rev. Mr. Welker. Dr. Andrew Truxal, president of Hood college, will address the graduates, and a number of musical selections will be presented by the Glee club and orchestra.

E. W. Pruitt, superintendent of schools for Frederick county, will award diplomas to the following students: Lois Jean Bentz, Rhudy Lee Cregger, Edward Wilcox Ferguson, Doris Cornelia Fisher, Wilma J. Gillespie, David Glass, Betty Ann Hollinger, Shirley Mae Jones, Clyde Johnson, Keith Holtz, Hazel Marie Keitholtz, Anna Mae Linn, Caroline Jane McDonnell, Peninah Morrison McNair, Beverly Joan Miller, Ruth Evelyn Neighbors, Doris Louise Olinger, Helen Elizabeth Phillips, Barbara Sue Stinson, Gene Ellsworth Toms, Gary Eugene Troxel, Heinz Wagner, Thomas Edgar Wantz, Catherine Wivell, Robert Louis Wivell.

The benediction will be given by Rev. Mr. Welker.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Baumgardner entertained guests at Sunday dinner including Misses Ruth and Rhoda Gillelan, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Martin and son from Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Felix Adams and Dora Louise, David, Billy and Harry Adams spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cromer, Hanover R. 1.

News Notes

An afternoon of games for the Women's club was held on Thursday afternoon at 1:30 at the home of Mrs. Maurice Zentz.

Over-the-Teacups met at Miss Ruth Gillelan's home on Monday.

A surprise birthday party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Krietz for Mrs. Lottie Krietz by her sons and daughters on Sunday. The guests at the party were: Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shearer and family, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Knott and family, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Ridenour and family, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Krietz and son, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Krietz and family, Theresa Krietz, Henry Wivell, Cecil Krietz, Jr., and Mrs. Mae Stoner and son.

ST. JOSEPH'S HI BACCALAUREATE SERMON FRIDAY

Commencement activities at St. Joseph's high school, Emmitsburg, will begin Friday morning at 9 o'clock with a mass and baccalaureate sermon at St. Joseph's Catholic church. Following the mass, the graduates will be served breakfast in the high school auditorium.

The traditional Senior Class day will be held following the breakfast Friday. Theme of the assembly will be the 50th class reunion of the class of 1900 and the class prophecy, will and history will be interwoven into the skit. Well known musical numbers, with the wording changed to be appropriate to the occasion will be sung by the seniors during the program.

To Present Diplomas

Graduation exercises will be held by the school on Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the high school auditorium with the Rt. Rev. Msgr. John J. Sheridan, president of Mt. St. Mary's college, presiding. The program will open with the singing of Malotte's "The Lord's Prayer" by the Glee club.

George W. Greco, the class valedictorian will have as his theme, "Building a Peaceful World — It Is Everybody's Business."

Following the singing of Romberg's "Serenade" by the Glee club, diplomas will be conferred on the following: General academic students, Helen Janet Adams and Barbara Jean Barron, of Fairfield; Loretta Lucille Boyle, Emmitsburg; James Edward Eckert and Romayne Elizabeth Peeser, of Taneytown; Patricia Margaret Fitzgerald and George William

ALEUTIANS ARE UNGUARDED BY U.S. ONCE MORE

By CLARKE BEACH
(AP Foreign Affairs Analyst)
Some of the boys who fought in the Aleutians are probably remembering the island's fogs and bone-chilling winds. This is the eighth anniversary month of the Japanese bombing of Dutch Harbor, opening the futile little campaign in which they made their only capture of North American soil.

Between June 6 and 10, 1942, they took Kiska, Attu and Agattu, at the western extremity of the island chain. By the following June the Americans were back again, at the cost of 2,000 men dead, wounded or ill from exposure to the vile weather.

When the Japs invaded there were no American defenses west of Dutch Harbor, about halfway between Anchorage and Attu.

Now once again there are practically no American forces in all the Aleutians. Why?

The military men answer this way:

In 1942 neither the navy nor army could spare the ships or men to guard the Aleutians, because America's very limited forces were more urgently needed elsewhere.

The Japanese invaded with practically no opposition. They had hardly begun to develop any real military strength on the islands, however, before they were kicked out — within a year. They offered resistance only on Attu. They had scurried away from Kiska and Agattu by the time the Yankees arrived.

After victory the army deployed troops all over the Aleutians. Eleven air fields were built. Adak was developed into a great army and navy supply base.

Now Army department officials

TRIPLE TITLIST—Betty Smith, of Charleston, W. Va., won her third beauty title in a year at the University of North Carolina when she was named May Queen.

say that no army people whatever are in the Aleutians. The air force has maintained four fields, but all will be closed by June 30 unless the Civil Aeronautics authority keeps one or two of them open.

The navy maintains Adak only in a caretaker status. It will keep the air field operational for limited navy use. The most important activity at Adak now is the weather station. Dutch Harbor has been completely closed, with only a few marines stationed there as watchmen.

The reason: There simply isn't enough money to maintain defenses on the Aleutians. Too many other areas of more strategic importance are lacking now in adequate defenses.

If the U.S. Navy maintains its present power, the strategists say, and if the air bases on the Alaska mainland are given adequate defenses, the ships and planes probably could prevent any invasion of the Aleutians, or at least nullify their value to an enemy.

The truth is that U.S. strategists do not regard the Aleutians as great assets either to the U.S., or to an enemy. Weather conditions are so bad that the air force says the Aleutian fields can be used only three days a month. Even 15 days is considered unacceptable.

Furthermore, it would take a vast amount of shipping and construction work to develop any of the Aleutian

TRUMAN ROLES HELD TO BE NOT CONTRADICTORY

By CLARKE BEACH

(AP Foreign Affairs Analyst)

The basic dilemma of those who guide United States foreign policy has come into sharp focus.

President Truman said at a recent news conference that he believed the world is closer to permanent peace than at any time in the last five years.

Yet a few hours earlier, in asking Congress to continue for a second year the military aid program for nations threatened with Communist aggression, he warned of dangers. In his report on the past year's program, he described "the increasingly bold and menacing character of Communist activities in many sectors of the earth."

Some Unhappy Results

Mr. Truman's roles as Paul Revere at the matinee and as the apostle of peace for the evening performance are not contradictory, as some officials explained it. They said he probably meant in his news conference remark that the prospects for peace are brighter now because of the growing power and unity of the western nations. The guiding principle of the administration is to seek to maintain peace by building U. S. strength and that of its allies to the point where the Soviets will not risk any aggression.

The course which the United States has found it expedient to pursue, however, has necessarily had some unhappy results. It has made it difficult for this country to assume the spiritual leadership which is needed to win any war, cold or hot.

Every move this nation makes to strengthen its allies, militarily, economically or culturally, is pounced on by the Kremlin as an instance of Yankee imperialism. The U. S. talks back eloquently enough. But the people of the world have heard so much insincere talk for the past 20 years or so that they haven't much faith in words.

U. S. On Defensive

The governments of most non-Communist powers, and perhaps a majority of their people, seem confident of America's good intentions. But there is ample evidence that many non-Communist are cynical about the American program.

Travelers from abroad report that there is much regret that America has not found some way to dramatize her peace-making position so as to rally the hearts and minds of all peoples. An interesting instance of cynicism in some foreign quarters was the vote of the Oxford (England) Union Debating society on June 1, in which the union regretted "United States domination of the democratic world."

Ideologically as well as militarily, the United States is on the defensive.

Lock Haven, Pa., June 8 (AP)—The Wednesday to halt the Air Force from awarding a contract for 500 light planes to the Cessna Aircraft company, Wichita, Kan.

William T. Piper, Piper corporation president, made public a copy of a letter which he sent to Secretary of Defense Louis Johnson requesting that he hold up the contract until an investigation is made.

Piper complained in his letter that the Air Force failed to adhere to its own specifications in awarding the contract to the Cessna firm.

Slain Man Found Trussed, Blanketed

Philadelphia, June 8 (AP)—The body of a man, wrapped in a blanket and trussed up in gangland style, was found Wednesday on a railroad siding only a half-square west of a fashionable skycraper apartment on the Benjamin Franklin parkway.

The discovery was made by William Georger while he was walking his dog in a lot near the Reading Co. siding.

The dead man was short and slender and believed to be about 35. He wore grayish blue trousers with a white pin stripe, a white nylon sports shirt, red socks and low black shoes.

A physician said the man had been killed by a blow on the back of the head. The doctor estimated the victim had been dead more than 12 hours.

The baby crib blanket sewed together were wrapped around the body and another blanket was wrapped on the outside. Clothesline had been used for the trussing.

Washington, June 8 (AP)—The Senate has passed a bill authorizing an additional $2,000,000,000 for government support of farm prices. The measure, similar to one approved by the House, increases by that amount the price supporting capacity of the Commodity Credit Corporation (CCC) which maintains the support program.

MANY RECENT DECISIONS ON NEGRO RIGHTS

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, June 8 (AP) — You may have the impression that the U. S. Supreme court has suddenly become very active about handing down decisions to bolster the civil rights of negroes.

Actually, the court has been doing this for years. But some of its biggest decisions have been made in the last few years, particularly in the past 54 years.

The decisions since 1896 have covered several fields: Voting, education, property, and travel on trains and buses. This will give a roundup of the main rulings in the past 54 years.

Some Main Rulings

Voting. — In the south the Democratic primary election is the important one, not the general election which follows it. That's because the south is mostly Democratic. The Republicans are weak.

In the Democratic primary the voters choose one of several Democratic candidates to face the Republican in the general election.

Since the Democrat is almost always a cinch to beat the Republican, this makes the primary the real election. Starting after the Civil war reconstruction era, the south has tried to keep negroes from voting in the primary.

But in 1877, again in 1932 and again in 1944 the court stepped in and told Texas—and therefore the rest of the south—to stop barring negroes from the Democratic primary.

Property. — In 1817 the court said cities couldn't have laws to make whites and negroes live in separate sections, although it had to repeat this ruling in several cases to make it stick.

Then in 1948 in this field the court dealt a powerful blow in the negroes' favor. This was in the case of racial covenants. That's a system by which white property owners agreed not to sell to negroes.

If one of them tried to break the covenant by selling to a negro, the others could go to court and get a judge to keep the negro out. But in 1948 the court said private property owners can make all the deals among themselves they want. But—no longer can a judge uphold such a covenant.

Travel And Education

Travel. — In 1914 the court said that when state laws order negroes and whites to be kept separate on trains, negroes must be given equal accommodations.

In 1941 the court went a little further. It said a negro who buys first-class accommodations on a train must get them — even if it means putting him in the white section—if the negro section has no first-class accommodations for him.

In 1946 the court said buses which cross state lines no longer can make negroes ride by themselves or behind white passengers.

And this week, in 1950, the court said railroad companies must stop forcing negroes to eat at separate tables in dining cars, set aside with curtains or screens.

Education. — In 1938, in 1948 and in two decisions this week the court said negroes must get equal treatment from their states in higher education. It didn't say anything about grammar or high schools.

TRUMAN TALKS TO CHURCHMEN: ASKS PRAYERS

By ERNEST B. VACCARO

Washington, June 8 (AP) — President Truman left today for two foreign policy talks in Missouri, after asking the nation's prayers for the wisdom to "obtain peace in the world."

"Never in the history of the country has a servant of the people—such as the President—needed your support and your prayers as does the present occupant of the White House," Mr. Truman told a church gathering here yesterday.

In solemn words, he related something of his feeling at this time of his country's "tremendous possibilities" in the cold war.

No man, he said, no matter how great or how informed he may be, is capable of filling the presidency in the manner "in which it ought to be done." He called it "the greatest job in the world."

Standing in the pulpit of the Augustana, Evangelical Lutheran church, he told delegates to the 181st National Annual Synod: "All any man can do is to do the best he can in the interests of all the people of the United States." Religious people, the President said, "are the greatest support a free government can have."

Mr. Truman takes off at 4 p.m. (Eastern Standard Time) in the "Independence" for St. Louis. He cancelled his usual Thursday news conference to work at his desk until departure time.

He speaks first at the University of Missouri at Columbia at 11:45 a.m. and tomorrow at commencement exercises. He will be awarded an honorary degree of doctor of laws and a Phi Beta Kappa key.

Another prepared address on foreign policy will be delivered Saturday at 3 p.m. (EST) in St. Louis at the dedication of Jefferson Park.

LAST CONTACT WITH CHINESE THRU MISSIONS

By CLARKE BEACH
(AP Foreign Affairs Analyst)

America's last contact with the Chinese people is now maintained by a brave and determined little band—the missionaries, educators, welfare people and doctors who represent private organizations over there.

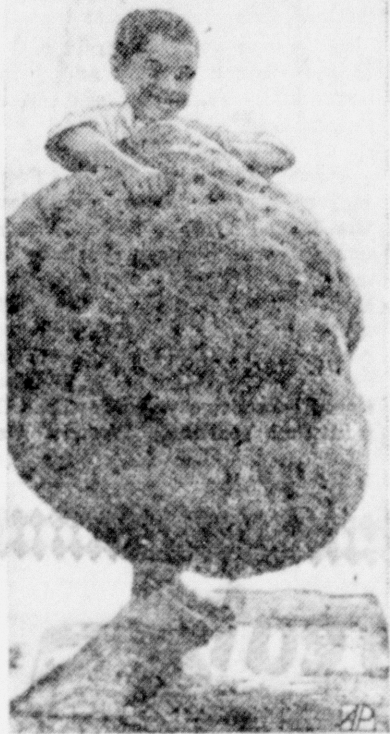

Between 1,600 and 1,800 are left, scattered throughout China, according to one official.

All American officials are gone. American businesses are closing down rapidly. Most of their personnel are getting out as fast as they can. Some leading American businessmen have said they see little hope of maintaining their enterprises there—unless the Communist government changes its mind and decides it wants to trade with the United States. The government desires now that the country needs no imports of any kind.

But the private religious, philanthropic and educational organizations have closed down very few of their establishments. Some of their American personnel have been evacuated, but their work is being carried on by native Chinese.

Believe Days Are Numbered
The Communist government has not given them much trouble yet, according to both Protestant and Catholic sources. But most of them seem reconciled to the belief that their days are numbered. Already the Communist government is closely supervising all education—the courses, faculty and so forth. It is generally expected that the missions' religious work will be curtailed when the atheistic Reds get around to it.

exclusion, it is believed, will be the medical missionaries, for China is desperately in need of medical help. Meanwhile, whatever America has to say to its old friends, the Chinese people, will have to be said through the mission folk. They alone are now able to talk to them of God, democracy, freedom, the dignity of the individual.

They will not be able to propagandize for the American way of life. The representatives of the private organizations here say that their only hope of being tolerated by the new Communist masters of China lies in neutrality. They can only carry on the work of religion, charity, welfare and education.

Insufficient bids caused the real estate of Andrew F. Smith, to be withdrawn when it was offered recently at public sale on the premises.

Preston B. Dallmeyer, York, a former resident of town, was a visitor here during the past week when he served as a pallbearer at the funeral of Miss Susan C. Himes.

These local girls, between the ages of ten and 16, are members of the recently organized 4-H club of this section: Leila Bollinger, Josia Bevenour, Teresa Bevenour, Judy Bevenour, Carole Crouse, Loretta M. Grot, Patricia Grot, Rosalie J. Klunk, Betty Mahone, Charlotte R. Orendorf, Linda J. Miller, Dorothy and Loretta Peterman, Beverly A. Smith and Joan Marie Smith. Miss Mary Jane Mickey is supervisor of the club which will work on a cooking project this summer.

A paper party formed a feature of the meeting of the local Girl Scouts on Monday evening at the home of Miss Eya Klinefelter. Daily Vacation Bible School was opened on Monday morning for children from four years of age to those of junior high school years, with classes from 9 to 11 each school day morning, until the conclusion on Friday, June 16. All children of the area are welcome, but attendance is expected to be regular as during school time. The school is being held at the property of St. Paul's Reformed church and the general theme is "Learning About Jesus."

The Ladies Aid society of the First Lutheran church met during the week with Mrs. George E. Shaffer, wife of the pastor, hostess at the parsonage.

The property on Lincolnway east, formerly owned by Mr. and Mrs. Preston B. Dallmeyer, who occupied it for several years before moving to York some months ago, has been bought by Mr. and Mrs. Willis Yeagy.

Miss Ruth McDannell, formerly of here, has returned to Ranshaw where she resides after a visit to relatives and friends here and in other sections of Adams county.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles I. Grot, Jr., who have been living at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Smith, are to go to housekeeping at the Lincolnway east property, formerly the home of the George Allamans family who now reside with Mrs. Allamans' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dutera.

A number of local students are in this week's graduating class at the Delone Catholic high school, McSherrystown, with many other young people of this area assisting in the exercises, as underclassmen.

Miss Yvonne Scullard, Hanover, formerly of here, has opened a store for the sale of foods required by special diets, in her home city.

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

As we get older, stress and strain, over-exertion, excessive smoking or exposure to cold sometimes shows down kidney function. This may lead many folks to complain of nagging backaches, loss of pep and energy, headaches and dizziness. Getting up nights or frequent passages may result from minor bladder irritations due to cold, dampness or dietary indiscretions.

If your discomforts are due to those causes, don't wait, try Dose's Pills, a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 30 years, these symptoms may often solve your problem. The slight youth is charged with slaying his father, Charles Ted Basham, 45, a coal miner, with a .22 calibre rifle as the parent slept in a chair in the living room of the family house at Hansford last April 2. The boy pleaded innocent.

FORRESTAL IS LINKED WITH AMERASIA CASE

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH
Washington, June 8 (AP)—Senate investigators were reported today to have received secret testimony that the late James V. Forrestal probably advised delaying arrests in the 1945

Amerasia case.
A source in close touch with the Senate inquiry into the secret documents case told a reporter the testimony came from Assistant Attorney General James M. McInerney, chief of the Justice Department's criminal division. The source asked not to be named.
Forrestal was secretary of the Navy at the time the case broke five years ago. Later he became Secretary of Defense. He was killed last year in a plane crash on an upper floor of the Naval Medical Center at nearby Bethesda, Md.

The information about the testimony regarding Forrestal came to light in the wake of still another authoritative report that the committee got testimony yesterday that former Presidential Aide James K. Vardaman may have tried to delay prosecution in the hotly-disputed Amerasia case.

Tells of Forrestal Note
Vardaman emphatically denied it to a reporter last night.
McInerney's testimony was taken by the committee last month at a series of sessions behind closed doors.
An informant said McInerney first told the committee he seemed to recall that Forrestal had asked the Justice Department to delay the arrest of the six persons accused. They were taken into custody by the FBI in June, 1945.

Later this informant said, McInerney testified that he had located a note from Justice Department files which indicated that Forrestal did make such a request.
McInerney reportedly was unable to supply a reason for the request. One of the six persons arrested in the case was Andrew Roth, at that time a lieutenant in naval intelligence.

The inquiry committee is known to have received reports that the Navy felt the arrests should be delayed pending further investigations as to whether anyone in the Navy Department other than Roth figured in the case.

To Quiz Vardaman
The Baltimore Sun, in a story from its Washington bureau, said today it has information that Forrestal's reported action may have stemmed from a desire to avoid friction with Russia about this country's trusteeship rights over islands seized from Japan. It said Forrestal reportedly suggested delaying the Amerasia arrests until after the United Nations conference then going on in San Francisco.

All six of those arrested in the case were charged with conspiracy to obtain illegal possession of government documents. Charges against four—including Roth—were dropped. Two of those arrested were fined.

Vardaman, who was naval aide to President Truman when the Amerasia case broke five years ago, now is a member of the Federal Reserve board of governors. He will be questioned behind closed doors tomorrow by a Senate foreign relations subcommittee which is making a new investigation of the Amerasia episode.

Trygve Lie Pushes His 10-Point Plan

Like Success, June 8 (AP)—U. N. Secretary-General Trygve Lie carried his demand for settlement of the Chinese representation dispute and ending the cold war to all members of the United Nations Wednesday.

He told them, in effect, that unless Red China is seated in the U. N. and the Russians come back to the United Nations meetings, there can be no progress toward world peace.

By letter and by radio messages in 22 languages, the U. N. chief executive appealed for support of a 10-point peace plan he has already presented in person to President Truman, and to Russia's Prime Minister Josef Stalin during his save-the-U. N. mission to Moscow last month.

Lie also pledged his plan when he saw British and French leaders during his European trip.

Woman, 54, Blamed For Family Murders

Paris, June 8 (AP)—Mme. Marie Besnard looks like a kindly grandmother and claims a "gentle character," but French police say she is responsible for the arsenic deaths of 12 of her close relatives.

After nearly three months of mental tests, doctors on Tuesday ruled the 54-year-old French peasant woman was sane and must face trial for murder.

Mme. Besnard is accused of poisoning her parents, two husbands, the parents of her second husband and six other persons—all since 1927. Conviction could mean death on the guillotine.

During the sanity tests Mme. Besnard told the doctors:

"I have a gentle character. I go to mass every Sunday and I take communion at Easter and on All Saints' Day."

Washington, June 8 (AP)—Secretary of State Acheson has declared the United States opposes and rearmament of Western Germany as a means of bolstering the security of the west. Acheson made this statement at a news conference in commenting on the testimony of Gen. Bradley before a Congressional committee yesterday. Bradley said that rearming Western Germany would strengthen the west.

"From a strictly military point of view."
